Tailored Change Management aligned to your expected business outcomes

Understanding that each transformation journey is unique, shaped by its own culture, resources, technology, and processes, we start with a Change Readiness Assessment. This foundational step is essential for determining the right Change Management strategy and support level tailored to the specific needs of your business and budget.

Change Readiness Assessment

With a thorough Change Readiness Assessment we help you build a robust foundation for your change initiatives. This will help you pinpoint strengths and uncover any gaps in your organization’s readiness for change, setting the stage for a successful transformation. The Change Readiness Assessment includes:

- Baseline assessment: Focused on critical areas such as current change management approaches, previous experiences with change within the organization, cultural readiness for change and leadership bandwidth to support and drive change
- Direct engagement: Collaboration with your leadership to build a strong case for change and ensure alignment at the highest levels of your organization
- Deliverables: Drive your initiatives forward with an executive summary, a complete data set, and actionable recommendations

Change Management Packages & Activities

Following the insights from the Change Readiness Assessment, here are some common activities and packages designed to provide ongoing Change Management support and ensure that the recommendations are implemented effectively.

	Essential support	Standard support	Elite support
If you have...	One or more change practitioners who have 12+ hours of weekly dedicated time for CM activities and who have ERP/CRM implementation experience	One or more change practitioners who have 8+ hours of weekly dedicated time and who have led teams through smaller change initiatives	A new or inexperienced change manager who is willing to lead while learning best practices to manage change or overall Change Management bandwidth less than 6 hours of weekly dedicated time
Who would benefit from...	Thought partnership with an Argano Change Lead	Consistent mentorship from an Argano Change Lead experienced in ERP/CRM implementations	A comprehensive package of assessments, tools, templates and coaching in addition to mentorship and education from an Argano Change Lead
We recommend that Argano provides...	4-8 hours of weekly CM coaching to align Change Management efforts with the overall project plan	8-12 hours of weekly CM support including coaching, mentorship, and editable versions of all recommended plan templates	12-16+ hours of weekly CM support to implement a structured approach that supports the people side of change.
